General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.

Note. If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States:

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity;
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 28% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),

3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code on page 3 and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships above.

What is FATCA reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code on page 3 and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Line 1

You must enter one of the following on this line; do not leave this line blank. The name should match the name on your tax return.

If this Form W-9 is for a joint account, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of Form W-9.

a. Individual. Generally, enter the name shown on your tax return. If you have changed your last name without informing the Social Security Administration (SSA) of the name change, enter your first name, the last name as shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

Note. ITIN applicant: Enter your individual name as it was entered on your Form W-7 application, line 1a. This should also be the same as the name you entered on the Form 1040/1040A/1040EZ you filed with your application.

b. Sole proprietor or single-member LLC. Enter your individual name as shown on your 1040/1040A/1040EZ on line 1. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as" (DBA) name on line 2.

c. Partnership, LLC that is not a single-member LLC, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name as shown on the entity's tax return on line 1 and any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

d. Other entities. Enter your name as shown on required U.S. federal tax documents on line 1. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

e. Disregarded entity. For U.S. federal tax purposes, an entity that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner is treated as a "disregarded entity." See Regulations section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(iii). Enter the owner's name on line 1. The name of the entity entered on line 1 should never be a disregarded entity. The name on line 1 should be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner's name is required to be provided on line 1. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on line 2, "Business name/disregarded entity name." If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Line 2

If you have a business name, trade name, DBA name, or disregarded entity name, you may enter it on line 2.

Line 3

Check the appropriate box in line 3 for the U.S. federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on line 1. Check only one box in line 3.

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the name on line 1 is an LLC treated as a partnership for U.S. federal tax purposes, check the "Limited Liability Company" box and enter "P" in the space provided. If the LLC has filed Form 8832 or 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, check the "Limited Liability Company" box and in the space provided enter "C" for C corporation or "S" for S corporation. If it is a single-member LLC that is a disregarded entity, do not check the "Limited Liability Company" box; instead check the first box in line 3 "Individual/sole proprietor or single-member LLC."

Line 4, Exemptions

If you are exempt from backup withholding and/or FATCA reporting, enter in the appropriate space in line 4 any code(s) that may apply to you.

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on this page), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if items 1, 4, or 5 below indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

- 1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.
- 2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.
- 3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.
- 4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).
- 5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Visit IRS.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

b) The Producer shall be free to exercise his own judgment as to the persons whom he will solicit and the time and place of such solicitations but shall comply with and be bound by the rules of the Company not interfering with such freedom of action of the Producer. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to create the relationship of employer and employee between the Company or the General Agent and the Producer.

c) The Producer has no authority to do and agrees not to do or attempt to do the following: (1) to make, alter or discharge any contract, policy or receipt, nor to waive any forfeiture provisions or condition thereof; (2) to receive any monies on behalf of the Company except initial premiums and then only upon strict compliance with the terms and conditions of the receipts, policies or contracts issued by the Company and with the rules of the Company; (3) to rebate or offer to rebate any part of a premium; (4) to issue or circulate any advertising material, circular or pamphlet relating to the Company unless the same shall have been authorized and approved in writing by the Company; (5) to make any misrepresentation or incomplete comparison for the purpose of inducing a policyholder in this or any other company to convert, lapse, forfeit or surrender his insurance therein; (6) to bind or obligate the Company or subject the Company to any liability unless specifically authorized in writing by the Company; (7) to endorse any checks payable to the General Agent or the Company.

2. COMPENSATION

a) The General Agent agrees to pay to the Producer the commissions shown in the Commission Schedule in effect at the time of application for the policies, a copy of which is attached hereto, in accordance with the Company's rules and subject to the terms and conditions of this Contract, on premiums covering insurance policies hereafter issued by the Company on applications submitted by the Producer through the General Agent, when and as such premiums are paid to and accepted by the Company.

b) The Producer shall have no claim for commissions on any business unless the Producer actually solicited the application and his name appears thereon as Agent. It is agreed that the Producer shall have no claim against the Company for commissions under this Contract except as provided under the terms of the Agreement of the Company annexed hereto.

h) The failure of the General Agent to enact strict compliance with the terms of this Contract or the failure to declare any default when the same shall become known to the General Agent, shall not operate as a waiver of such conditions nor release the Producer from his obligation to perform this Contract strictly in accordance with its terms.

i) The Company reserves the right to discontinue writing all or any part of its business in any jurisdiction upon written notice thereof by the General Agent to the Producer and neither the Company nor the General Agent shall incur liability to the Producer by reason of the Company doing so.

a) Any violation of any sections of paragraphs 1(c) or 3(f) of this Contract, or, the Producer's withholding or converting to his own use funds or property of the General Agent or the Company, an applicant, or insured, shall effect an immediate termination of this Contract and a forfeiture of any and all commissions and other rights which would otherwise accrue to the Producer. c) If this Contract be terminated other than as provided in paragraph 4(a) hereof, the Producer shall receive commissions as provided in the Commissions Schedule with respect to premium paid to and accepted by the Company on and after the date of such termination subject to all rules of Paragraph 2 of this Contract.

6) SPECIFIC PROVISIONS - GROUP INSURANCE

a) The first year commission rate shall apply to premiums for each policy covering the period of one year (or any part thereof) from the effective date of each policy; the renewal commission rate shall apply to premiums for each policy year thereafter so long as the Producer is legally authorized to solicit such insurance by the insurance department having jurisdiction over the policies.

c) In the event of the extension of any of the policies to cover persons not included on the effective date of the policy or in the event the existing policy is revised to increase the schedule of insurance or add a new benefit for those already insured, this Producer Contract shall not apply to premiums for such additional insurance but commissions shall be paid in accordance with the rules of the Company existing on the date of the extension or addition.

d) Commission adjustments will be made at the end of each premium paying period. Except as provided in the preceding paragraph, if the original premium for any premium paying period has been increased by net adjustments during said period, additional commission will be allowed upon the net increase; if it has been decreased, a refund of commission must be made by the Producer and such refund commission shall be a first charge against any commissions accrued or to accrue under any insurance policy in the Company and may be deducted therefrom.

7) AGREEMENT OF THE COMPANY

THE UNITED STATES LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK, NEW YORK, NY hereby agrees that, in the event the Agreement between the General Agent and the Company is terminated,

a) it will pay directly to the Producer the commissions which may thereafter become due and payable to the Producer under this Producer's Contract; b) the Producer without further action or notice, may continue to submit applications for policies and contracts issued by the Company directly to the Company or such representative as may be designated by the Company to receive them until this Producer's Contract shall be otherwise terminated; c) unless this Producer's Contract is terminated as provided in paragraphs 4(a) or 4(b) or by either the Producer or the Company giving written notice of termination to the other party, it shall continue in force as between the Company and the Producer upon the same terms and conditions as set forth in the Contract.

This Agreement, effective the same date of the Producer's Contract is between the Producer and THE UNITED STATES LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK, NEW YORK, NY (hereafter called "The Company")

1. Service Fee. In order to qualify for the Service Fee, the Producer must have completed the Basic Qualification hereafter described. The Service Fee will be paid during the calendar year immediately following the calendar year in which the Basic Qualification has been completed and in any calendar year thereof which is immediately preceded by a calendar year in which the Producer has earned at least $1200.00 of the first year commissions. If, however, the Producer be an individual and completes the Basic Qualification, then beginning on his retirement date, hereinafter defined, the Service Fee will be paid each calendar year thereafter so long as the Producer shall live. The retirement date of an individual shall be the first day of January of the earliest calendar year (1) following his 65th birthday and (2) immediately preceded by seven calendar years in which the Producer has earned not less than $1200.00 first year commissions in each of four thereof.

The Service Fee shall be payable only on individual life insurance policies and annuity contracts having issue dates on or after the beginning of the first calendar year which is credited to the Basic Qualification, issued by the Company on applications solicited by the Producer and on which his name appears as Agent. The Service Fee shall be equal to 2% of the premiums accruing on such policies and contracts after the tenth policy or contract year thereof as shall be paid to and accepted by the Company during any calendar year in which the Service Fee is payable.

2. Basic Qualification. In order to qualify for the Service Fee, the Producer must have earned first year commissions on business written for the Company of at least $600.00 in each calendar year for two calendar years followed by first year commissions of at least $1200.00 in each calendar year for any succeeding eight calendar years. PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that if the Producer fails to earn at least $600.00 of first year commissions in each calendar year for any two consecutive calendar years, he shall not receive any credit toward his Basic Qualification for any calendar year prior thereto. Only calendar years after the effective date of this Agreement shall be credited toward the Basic Qualification.

3. Disability. If, in the sole judgment of the Company, the Producer is totally disabled for a period of 60 days or more in any calendar year, the requirement for qualification in such calendar year may be reduced proportionately.

4. First Year Commissions. For the purpose of this Agreement first year commissions shall mean first year commissions earned by the Producer on first year premiums on individual life insurance policies and annuity contracts issued by the Company on applications solicited by the Producer and on which his name appears as Agent. For the purpose of this Agreement first year commissions shall be earned when such first year premiums are actually due and paid to and accepted by the Company. The Company's determination of first year commissions which are to be taken into account for the purpose of this Agreement shall be final and binding upon the Producer.

5. Payment of Service Fee. Any Service Fee accruing hereunder shall be paid quarterly unless the Company elects to pay on some other basis but in no event less frequently than annually.

6. Termination of Service Fee. Accrual of all Service Fees shall cease upon termination of the Producer's contract. Any such termination shall not affect the payment of any Service Fees which have accrued prior thereto, unless termination has been in accordance with section 4(a) of the Producer's Contract.

7. Nonassignability. The Producer may not assign this Agreement or any right or interest which may accrue to him hereunder, it being an express condition of this Agreement that it shall not be subject to assignment.

8. Independent Agreement. This Agreement shall be deemed separate and independent from any General Agent, District Agent, Producer, Agent or Broker Agreement between the Producer and the Company or any General Agent or District Agent of the Company and shall not affect, modify or limit in any way the rights or obligations of the respective parties under such General Agent, District Agent, Producer, Agent or Broker Agreement.

9. Relationship. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to create relationship of employer and employee between the Company and the Producer, it being understood that the Producer is not obligated hereunder to solicit applications on behalf of the Company, and that he shall be free to exercise his own judgment as to the persons whom he will solicit and the time and place of such solicitations.

10. Modification or Termination of Agreement. The Company reserves the right to change, modify or terminate this Agreement upon prior written notice to the last known address of the Producer provided, however, that no such change, modification or termination shall affect the Producer's rights hereunder which have accrued prior to the effective date of such change, modification or termination.

Any requirements applicable to Business Associate under the HITECH are incorporated into this Addendum. Business Associate agrees to comply with each of the requirements imposed under the HITECH, as of the applicable effective dates of each such requirement, including compliance with any guidance and regulations issued pursuant to the HITECH.

3. Business Associate Obligations and Activities.

Business Associate, and its officers, directors, employees, contractors and agents, shall:

- a. Maintain the confidentiality, and use and disclose PHI solely for the purposes specified in the Agent Agreement and any addendum thereto and to fulfill the purpose of this Addendum, as Required by Law, and consistent with Insurer's notice of privacy practices, policies and procedures, provided that such use or disclosure would not violate HIPAA, if done by Insurer.
- b. Use all commercially reasonable efforts and appropriate safeguards to maintain the integrity, confidentiality and security of PHI and to prevent the unauthorized use or disclosure of PHI as Required by Law, and to comply with the security standards of HIPAA.
- c. Report to Insurer's Privacy Officer in writing immediately (if practicable, but no later than two (2) business days of Business Associate's discovery) any Security Incident or breach, or any use or disclosure of PHI that is not permitted by this Addendum of which Business Associate becomes aware. Business Associate's report shall identify: (i) the nature of the unauthorized use, disclosure or Security Incident, (ii) the PHI used or disclosed, (iii) who made the unauthorized use or received the unauthorized disclosure, (iv) what Business Associate has done or shall do to mitigate any deleterious effect of the unauthorized use, disclosure, or Security Incident, (v) what corrective action Business Associate has taken or shall take to prevent future similar unauthorized use, disclosure, or Security Incident and (vi) any other information as reasonably requested by Insurer's Privacy Officer. Business Associate shall cooperate with Insurer to conduct any risk assessment necessary to determine whether breach notification is required. A Security Incident or breach shall be treated as discovered by Business Associate as of the first day on which such incident is known, or should reasonably have been known, to Business Associate. For purposes of this Section the knowledge of any person, other than the individual committing the breach, that is an employee, officer or other agent of Business Associate shall be imputed to Business Associate.
- d. Comply with any additional provisions of HITECH that relate to privacy and security and that are made applicable with respect to covered entities such as HITECH Sec. 13401.
- e. Develop, implement, maintain, and use appropriate safeguards to prevent any use or disclosure of the PHI or EPHI other than as provided by this Addendum, and to implement administrative, physical and technical safeguards as required by 45 CFR Sec. 164.308, 164.310, 164.316 and HITECH to protect the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of EPHI or PHI that Business Associate creates, receives, maintains, or transmits, in the same manner that such sections apply to Insurer.
- f. Adopt the technology and methodology standards required in any guidance issued by the Secretary pursuant to HITECH Sec. 13401-13402.
- g. Enter into an agreement with each of its Subcontractors pursuant to 45 CFR Sec. 164.308(b)(1), 164.502(e)(1), and HITECH 13401 that is appropriate and sufficient to require each such Subcontractor that had access to PHI to agree in writing to the same restrictions and conditions on the use and/or disclosure of PHI that apply within this Addendum, including implementation of administrative, physical and technical safeguards and controls and policies, procedures, training and sanctions in compliance with HIPAA.
- h. Along with its agents and Subcontractors, only request, use and disclose the minimum amount of PHI necessary to accomplish the purpose of the request, use or disclosure in accordance with HITECH Sec. 13405.

Make Business Associate's internal practices, books, and records relating to the use and disclosure of PHI available to the Secretary or Insurer within thirty (30) days of receipt of a request from Insurer or the Secretary, for purposes of determining Business Associate's and Insurer's compliance with the HIPAA requirements, subject to attorney client and other applicable legal privileges.

- j. Within ten (10) days of receiving a written request from Insurer, provide to Insurer such information as is requested by Insurer, if any, to permit the Insurer to respond to a request by an individual for access to, an amendment of, or an accounting of the disclosures of the individual's PHI in accordance with 45 CFR Sec. 164.524, Sec. 164.526, and Sec. 164.528. If an individual contacts Business Associate directly about access to, amendment of, or an accounting of disclosures of his/her PHI, Business Associate will forward such request immediately to Insurer and not make such access, amendment, or accounting. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Business Associate shall make reasonable efforts to cooperate with Insurer in responding to any such requests and enabling Insurer to comply with federal laws and regulations regarding the timing of response to such requests.
- k. Upon termination of this Addendum, return or destroy, if feasible, (with the permission of Insurer) all PHI that it maintains in any form pursuant to this Addendum, and retain no copies of such information. This provision shall apply to PHI that is in the possession of Subcontractors or agents of Business Associate. A senior officer of Business Associate shall certify in writing to Insurer within thirty (30) days after termination of this Addendum that all PHI has been returned or destroyed and Business Associate retains no PHI. However, if Insurer determines that such return or destruction is not feasible, Business Associate will continue to extend the protections of this Addendum to such PHI and limit further use of the information to the purposes that make the return or destruction not feasible. The respective rights and obligations of each party pursuant to this subsection shall survive the termination of this Addendum.
- l. Notify Insurer immediately upon receipt of notice of an investigation or of a lawsuit filed against Business Associate related to or arising from the use or disclosure of PHI by Business Associate pursuant to this Addendum.
- m. If Business Associate maintains PHI in a Designated Record Set, i) make any amendments to PHI in the Designated Record Set that the Insurer directs or agrees to at the request of an individual within thirty (30) days of receipt of the direction or agreement from Insurer, and ii) provide within thirty (30) days at the request of Insurer access to PHI in a Designated Record Set to Insurer or, as directed by Insurer, to an individual in order to meet applicable HIPAA requirements.

4. Business Associate Permitted Uses and Disclosures.

- a. Except as otherwise limited by this Addendum, Business Associate may use or disclosure PHI on behalf of, or to provide services to Insurer as long as such use or disclosure of PHI would not violate the Privacy Rule if done by Insurer or the minimum necessary policies and procedures of the Insurer.
- b. Except as otherwise limited by this Addendum, Business Associate may disclose PHI for the proper management and administration of Business Associate provided that the disclosures are Required by Law, or Business Associate obtains reasonable assurances from the person to whom the information is disclosed that it will remain confidential and used or further disclosed only as Required by Law or for the purpose for which it was disclosed to the person, and the person notifies Business Associate of any instances of which it is aware in which the confidentiality of the information has been breached.

5. Insurer's Obligations.

- a. Insurer shall provide Business Associate a copy of its notice of privacy practices; Business Associate agrees that it will abide by the limitations of any such notice of privacy practices.
- b. Insurer shall notify Business Associate of any changes in, or revocation of, permission by a person to use or disclose PHI, to the extent that such changes may affect Business Associate's use or disclosure of PHI.
- c. Insurer shall notify Business Associate of any restriction to the use or disclosure of PHI the Insurer has agreed to in accordance with 45 CFR Sec. 164.522, to the extent that such restriction may affect Business Associate's use or disclosure of PHI.

6. Termination. In the event Business Associate breaches a material obligation under this Addendum, including the provisions governing the confidentiality and security of PHI, Insurer may require Business Associate to cure the breach within a specified time period of not less than twenty (20) days. If Business Associate does not cure the breach within this time, Insurer may terminate the Agent Agreement and this Addendum upon written notice.

7. Survival. The respective rights and obligations of Business Associate shall survive the termination of this Addendum.

8. No Third Party Beneficiaries. Nothing express or implied in this Addendum is intended to confer, nor anything herein shall confer, upon any person other than the parties hereto any rights, remedies, obligations, or liabilities whatsoever.

9. Injunctive Relief. Business Associate agrees that the remedies at law for any breach by it of the terms of this Addendum shall be inadequate and that monetary damages resulting from such breach are not readily measured. Accordingly, in the event of a breach or a threatened breach by Business Associate of the terms of this Addendum, Insurer shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief. Nothing herein shall prohibit Insurer from pursuing any other remedies available to it for such breach, and Insurer's rights under this Addendum related to injunctive relief, if any, shall be cumulative.
10. Indemnification. To the extent permitted by law, Business Associate agrees to indemnify and hold harmless and defend Insurer and its affiliates and its and their officers and directors, employees and agents from and against all claims, demands, liability, judgments or causes of action of any nature for any relief, elements of recovery or damages recognized by law (including without limitation, attorney's fees, defense costs, and equitable relief) for any damage or loss incurred by Insurer arising out of, resulting from or attributable to any acts or omission of Business Associate in connection with the performance of Business Associate's duties under this Addendum.
11. Interpretation. This Addendum governs the obligations of Business Associate and Insurer with respect to privacy issues only, and the Agent Agreement shall govern as to all other issues. If there is any conflict between the Agent Agreement and this Addendum, this Addendum shall control. Any ambiguity in this Addendum shall be resolved in favor of a meaning that permits Insurer and Business Associate to comply with HIPAA, the Privacy Rule, the Security Rule and HITECH.
12. Changes in Laws. Business Associate understands that (i) Insurer may amend Insurer's policies, rules, and procedures, in order to comply with changes in laws or regulations, or, as Insurer deems appropriate related to changes in laws or regulations, and communicate such changes to Business Associate. To the extent that new state or federal laws change a Business Associate's obligations under this Addendum, this Addendum shall automatically be amended to include such changes. (ii) For purposes of any changes, Insurer's communication to the Business Associate may include, but not be limited to, posting of the information on Insurer's websites or other means of making such information known or available to the Business Associate.
13. Compliance With Laws. Business Associate shall comply with all applicable laws, rules and regulations, including the Insurer's published policies, rules and procedures, at all time, and as may be adopted in the future. To the extent that state laws are more stringent than the HIPAA regulations, any use or disclosure of PHI by Business Associate shall be made in accordance with the law. Any provision or ambiguity of this Addendum which conflicts with an applicable state or federal law shall be interpreted so as to permit compliance with HIPAA or the minimum requirements of any such statute or regulation.

AMERICAN GENERAL LIFE COMPANIES

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW PROTECTED MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

This Notice is provided to you for informational purposes only.

You are not required to call or take any action in response to this Notice.

This Notice tells you about the ways in which American General Life Companies¹ (referred to as “we”) may use and disclose your protected health information (PHI) and your rights concerning your PHI. PHI is information about you, including demographic information (like your name, address, or gender), whether oral or recorded in any form or medium, that can reasonably be used to identify you. This information may be collected from you or from members of the health care industry (like doctors or employee benefit plans) and relates to your past, present or future physical or mental health or condition, the provision of health care to you or the payment for that care.

We are required by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) to maintain the privacy of PHI and to provide you with this Notice about your rights and our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to your PHI. We must follow the terms of this Notice while it is in effect. Some of the uses and disclosures described in this Notice may be limited in certain cases by applicable state laws that are more stringent than the federal standards.

HOW WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

We may use and disclose your PHI for different purposes. As appropriate for the particular insurance or plan, the examples below are provided to illustrate the types of uses and disclosures we may make without your authorization as permitted by law for claims payment, health care operations and treatment.

- Claims Payment. We use and disclose your PHI to health care providers (physicians), insurance carriers, the state or others for benefit verification and in order to pay for your covered health expenses. For example, we may share your PHI with a health care provider to assist with processing claims or to another health plan to coordinate and/or seek reimbursement for benefit payments. We will share the least amount of information so that payment can be made. Usually, this involves identifying you, your diagnosis and the treatment provided.
- Health Care Operations. We use and disclose your PHI in order to perform our health care activities including, but not limited to, quality assessment activities, underwriting, premium rating, premium collection, reinsurance, compliance, auditing, or other administrative activities, including data management or customer service. We may review your health information if it is time for us to reestablish your eligibility for coverage or to conduct reassessments for case review. HIPAA, however, prohibits any use or disclosure of PHI that is genetic information for underwriting purposes. Genetic information means information about (1) your or your family members’ genetic tests, (2) manifestation of a disease or disorder in your family members, or (3) your or your family members’ requests for, or receipt of, a genetic test, counseling or education, or participation in clinical research which includes such test, counseling or education.
- Treatment. We may use and disclose your PHI to assist your health care providers (doctors, dentists, pharmacies, hospitals and others) in your diagnosis and treatment. For example, we may disclose your PHI to providers to provide information about alternative treatments.
- Plan Sponsor. We may disclose your PHI to the plan sponsor for purposes that are described in the document that governs the specific plan. However, prior to any such disclosure, the plan sponsor will be required to certify that it will use your PHI in accordance with regulations governing the privacy of your PHI.
- Enrolled Dependents and Family Members. We will mail explanation of benefits forms and other mailings containing PHI to the address we have on record for the person who is enrolled in the health plan.
- Health Claim Vendors. We may contract with individuals or vendors who are sometimes called “Business Associates” to perform various functions on our behalf or to provide certain types of services. In order to perform these functions on our behalf or to provide these services, Business Associates may receive, create, maintain, use and/or disclose your PHI, but only after they agree in writing with us to implement appropriate safeguards and maintain the privacy of your PHI. For example, we may disclose your PHI to a Business Associate to administer claims or to provide support services, such as underwriting services, actuarial services, legal services, care coordination services, utilization management, pharmacy benefit management or subrogation, but only after the Business Associate enters into a written agreement with us.

¹ For purposes of this Notice, the American General Life Companies and the pronouns “we,” “us,” “our” and “plan” refer to the individual health and long term care and group health products underwritten by American General Life Insurance Company* and The United States Life Insurance Company in the City of New York.

*This Company does not solicit business in New York

USES OR DISCLOSURES REQUIRING AN AUTHORIZATION

- Psychotherapy Notes. We must obtain your authorization for any use or disclosure of psychotherapy notes, except in cases of (1) use by the originator of the psychotherapy notes for treatment, (2) use or disclosure by us to defend ourselves in a legal action or other proceeding brought by you, (3) use or disclosure when required for government audits (see Government Audits) or when required by law (see As Required by Law), (4) use or disclosure for health oversight activities regarding the originator of the psychotherapy notes (see Health Oversight Activities), (5) disclosure to coroners or medical examiners (see Coroners, Funeral Directors, Organ Donation), or (6) use or disclosure to avert a serious threat to health or safety (see To Avert a Serious Threat to Health or Safety).

If marketing involves our receipt of any payment from or on behalf of a third party whose product or service is being described, the authorization will state that such payment is involved.
- Sale of PHI. We must obtain your authorization before any sale of PHI, and such an authorization will state that the disclosure will result in our receipt of remuneration. It is not considered a sale of PHI, however, if the disclosure is required by law or is for purposes of (1) a sale, transfer, merger or consolidation of all or part of us with or into another HIPAA-covered entity, (2) our subcontractors (or others on their behalf) performing legitimate services and receiving payment from us only for the performance of such services, or (3) for any other purpose permitted by the HIPAA privacy rule where the only remuneration we (or our business associates) receive is a reasonable cost-based fee for preparing and transmitting the PHI or such other fee expressly permitted by law.

All other uses or disclosures of your PHI not described in this Notice will be made only with your written authorization. You may revoke an authorization at any time in writing, but such revocation will not apply to the extent that we have already taken action in reliance on your authorization. To the extent the authorization was obtained as a condition of obtaining insurance coverage, other law may provide the insurer with the right to contest a claim under the policy or the policy itself.

YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

You have certain rights regarding your PHI that we maintain about you.

- Right To Access Your PHI. You have the right to review or obtain copies of your PHI, with some limited exceptions. Your request to review and/or obtain a copy of your PHI records must be made in writing. We may charge a fee for the costs of producing, copying and mailing your requested information, but we will tell you the cost in advance. We may also deny such request. You have a right to receive electronic copies of your PHI but only to the extent it is electronically maintained.
- Right to Amend Your PHI. You have a right to amend your PHI with a written request specifying the reason you are seeking the amendment.

We have the right to deny your request to amend your PHI records if (1) we did not create the record, unless you provide a reasonable basis for us to believe that the originator of the PHI is not available to act on the requested amendment, (2) you ask us to amend information that is not part of your record, (3) you ask us to amend information that is not available for inspection under HIPAA, or (4) you ask to amend a record that we determine to be accurate and complete. If we deny your request to amend, we will notify you in writing and include the reason for the denial. You then have the right to submit to us a written statement of disagreement with our decision which will be added to your records, and we have the right to rebut that statement. If we agree to amend the records as requested, then we may also make reasonable efforts to inform others, including specific parties named by the consumer of the changes.

- Right to an Accounting of Disclosures. You have the right to receive an accounting of disclosures of your PHI made by us during the six years prior to your request. The accounting will not include disclosures of information: (1) made prior to April 14, 2003; (2) for treatment, payment and health care operations; (3) to you or pursuant to your authorization; (4) to correctional institutions or law enforcement officials; and (5) other disclosures that federal law does not require us to provide an accounting. The first accounting that you request within a 12-month period will be free. For additional accountings within the same time period, we may charge for providing the accounting, but we will tell you the cost in advance. Your request must be made in writing and must state the period of time for which you are requesting an accounting.

- Right To Request Restrictions on the Use and Disclosure of Your PHI. You have the right to request that we restrict or limit how we use or disclose your PHI for treatment, payment or health care operations. We may not agree to your request, except where the disclosure is for the purpose of carrying out payment or health care operations and is not otherwise required by law and the PHI pertains solely to a health care item or service that you (or others, other than the insurer, on your behalf) paid for in full out-of-pocket. If we do agree, we will comply with your request unless the information is needed for an emergency. Your request for a restriction must be made in writing. In your request, you must clearly state (1) what information you want to limit; (2) whether you want to limit how we use or disclose your information, or both; and (3) to whom you want the restrictions to apply.
- Right To Receive Confidential Communications. You have the right to request that we use a certain method to communicate with you or that we send information to a certain location if the communication could endanger you. Your request to receive confidential communications must be made in writing. Your request must clearly state that all or part of the communication from us in the usual manner could endanger you. Your request must specify how or where you wish to be contacted. We will accommodate all reasonable requests.
- Right to a Paper Copy of This Notice. You have a right at any time to request a paper copy of this Notice, even if you had previously agreed to receive an electronic copy. You may obtain a copy of this Notice by contacting our Privacy Officer. See the end of this Notice for the contact information.
- Contact Information for Exercising Your Rights. You may exercise any of the rights described above by contacting our Privacy Officer. See the end of this Notice for the contact information.
- Breach Notification Requirements. American General Life Companies will comply with the requirements of the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act (“HITECH”) and its implementing regulations, including the final HIPAA Omnibus Rule, to provide notification to affected individuals, HHS, and the media (when required) if we or one of our business associates discovers a breach of unsecured PHI. Unsecured PHI means PHI that is not secured by a technology standard that renders PHI unusable, unreadable, or indecipherable to unauthorized individuals.
